Sheriff L.S. (Slim) Johnson examines a plant suspected of being marijuana and diamond rings found in a house rented by Roy Joe Stevens, Jr., on Hix Drive. The plant was found along with the property taken from the residence of Johnnie Boone.

In House Burglary

1 Arrested, 1 Sought

Keith Loden Stevens, 21, of Canyon, was arraigned Tuesday afternoon on charges of burglary of a private residence at night in connection with the burglary of the residence of Johnnie Boone.

Justice of the Peace Bill Wilson set bond at $1500. Stevens is the son of F. Pinner Stevens of Canyon.

A warrant has been issued by the Randall County Sheriff's office for the arrest of Roy Joe Stevens Jr. in connection with the burglary of $7,000 to $10,000 worth of property taken from the residence of Johnnie Boone on Hix Drive over the week-end.

The property taken from the Boone residence was found in a house rented by Stevens on the P.L. Pitts farm on Hix Drive Monday night. The sheriff's office had three persons in custody Tuesday morning for investigation of the burglary but they were released.

Deputy Recil Johnson said three car loads of goods were found in the house including the property taken from the Boone house, other property, and six baby food jars of a substance being tested to determine if it is marijuana.

Clothing, linens, silver, television sets, stereos, diamond rings, beef and other food items, guns, ammunition, camera equipment and tools were among the items taken from the Boone house. Johnson said that the camera equipment and a briefcase were the only items still missing.

The Boone family with the exception of a son and daughter were away for the weekend and Boone theorized that the burglary took place Saturday night. The two Boone children were staying with families in Canyon and Amarillo.

Boone said that his son returned home about 12:30 a.m. Saturday night to change clothes and then left.

He said that the backdoor to the house was open and the bathroom door was closed. Boone said that his son thought that his sister and a friend were staying in the house but Boone said he thought the burglars were probably hiding in the bathroom at the time.

Boone's daughter, Diana, reported the burglary to the sheriff's office about 11 a.m. Sunday when she returned home to find the front and back doors and the garage door open.

Boone said the burglars gained entry to the house by prying up a dining room window.

Commission Makes Strong Case For I-27 Western Route

(Special To The Canyon News)

The Canyon City Commissioners came up number one on the docket before the State Highway Commission Wednesday to speak in behalf of proposed Route E of Interstate 27.

Speaking for the Canyon group Mayor J. Manly Bryan drew high praise from members of the commission for the thoroughness of his presentation.

Following the theme that the cheapest route may not always be the best in terms of long-range growth and development, Bryan pointed out increased costs to the city of Canyon if the eastern route, or Route A, is accepted.

"As the eastern route takes I-27 east of Tierra Blanca Creek, the city of Canyon will be forced to extend water and sewer services across this major tributary running into Palo Duro Canyon. This would require a large capital commitment of tax dollars and most likely require issuance of bonds to cover the extension cost.

"The extension of fire and police protection to an area of development east of the creek would also be a significant cost factor. Little needs to be said about the financial position of cities today. Any commitment of large sums of money greatly limits any community's ability to maintain and improve its services.

"The western route, Route E, does not pose this problem.

Riding Club Officers And Queen Named

The queen of the United Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs will be crowned at 8 p.m. Saturday night at an awards banquet in the Canyon Community Center.

Officers for the coming year will be also installed at the banquet.

Queen candidates are Linda Horton, of Canyon, representing the Palo Duro Rangers; Lavanda Nolan of Dalhart; Carol Cole of Pampa, and Kay Lynn of Amarillo.

Officers to be installed are Leon Cox, president; Bill Collins, vice-president; Lena Mae Houseman, secretary, and Evelyn Lamb, treasurer.

Santa Letters To Be Published

Santa Claus is waiting to hear from you and The Canyon News is helping jolly ole St. Nick read his mail.

Letters to Santa will be published in the Christmas issue of the News, Dec. 23, and all letters can be mailed to Box 779, Canyon.

So kiddoes, let Santa Claus know what you want by writing him a personal letter, and let the Canyon News help deliver those letters.

to the city since it would run chiefly through areas already served by the major municipal services, and these areas of extension would most likely require the crossing of Tierra Blanca or Palo Duro creek.

"The citizens of Canyon help pay for the interstate and to burden unnecessarily the Canyon community financially, as we think the eastern route would do, is to require this one city to contribute far more than its share to the area's transportation cost."

When Commission chairman Dewitt Greer stated "you are saying that dollars in this case should be overlooked," Bryan disagreed.

"No we are not saying dollars should be overlooked. This route will cost more, about $2.5 million difference, but we feel that the expenditure of this $2.5 million will help raise more money by maintaining a viable city."

He stressed that the eastern route, in addition to costing more in the way of city services, would also disrupt residential growth of the city, which is moving in that direction.

Greer questioned Bryan on the disagreement of the

LEON C. HORTON, RIGHT AND ATTORNEY JOE FLEMMING

Sentenced To 10 Years

Horton Found Guilty

BY ELAINE PEEPLES

The jury in the Leon C. Horton case returned a verdict of guilty Wednesday morning after only 30 minutes of deliberation.

The case went to the jury 11:15 a.m. and the jury returned with a verdict at about 11:45 a.m.

The punishment hearing was held Wednesday afternoon. The minimum sentence for the charge of theft by false pretext is two years. The jury assessed the maximum sentence of 10 years.

Al Bergeron, companion and body guard to Robert L.

Roberts, said following the verdict, "Well, this is a start." Horton is under indictment on 10 other charges of theft by false pretext.

Horton said immediately before the verdict was announced, "If you are guilty you can explain away almost anything but if you are innocent there are lots of things you don't know."

Horton, a Dallas attorney on trial for theft by false pretext, took the stand in his own defense Tuesday afternoon, and said that all the business transactions he carried out were on the instructions of Robert L. Roberts of Dallas.

The state rested its case at 2:25 p.m. Tuesday in 181st District Court before Judge Don Dean. The defense rested its case at 5:25 p.m. Horton, faced charges involving the alleged forgery of stock transfers and the power of attorney of Robert L. Roberts.

Roberts and his aunt Miss Jesse Forsythe have been missing since Aug. 15, 1970.

James Leroy Lewis, a document examiner from Dallas, testified Tuesday morning that in his investigation he found the signature of Robert L. Roberts on the power of attorney to Horton, several warranty deeds and stock certificates not to be the authentic signature of Roberts.

Horton said that he first became acquainted with Roberts when he noticed some property belonging to Roberts was being sold for taxes.

"I wrote Roberts a polite little letter," Horton said, informing him that the property had been sold for taxes and that he had two years to redeem it.

Horton said that Roberts called to thank him and Horton subsequently became involved in his business affairs. Horton said he represented Roberts in a tax assessment fight with the city of Farmers Branch and on various other business matters.

Horton said that Roberts asked him to prepare several documents, including the power of attorney to Horton. Horton said Roberts asked him to bring them over to his home on July 25, 1970, along with a notary and that Roberts executed some of the papers, kept them and Horton left.

Horton said that early on the morning of Aug. 15, Roberts "banged on my door" and gave Horton the power of attorney and left oral instructions on the management of his affairs while he was out of town.

Horton said that the instructions included not selling any of Robert's bank stock.

Roberts told Horton, he said, that he would pick up money from time to time and that Horton should arrange for the delivery of these assets.

Roberts wore a red ring, Horton said, and Roberts told Horton that he would send a "courier" to represent him and that the person would always have the red ring. Horton said he was to deliver to the person anything he requested.

Horton said he had not seen Roberts since that morning of Aug. 15. Horton said the courier came to his

Burglary Suspects Nabbed After Chase

It was cops and robbers like in the movies with high speed chases, car wrecks, foot chases and finally, gun shots to stop the bad guys.

Tuesday morning just such a drama unfolded north of Canyon with Randall County sheriff deputies and Canyon policemen doing the chasing.

It began around 7 a.m. Tuesday when two men were seen breaking a window at London Alaska Fur Co. and allegedly removing a fur piece from the window. The witness notified Amarillo police and gave a car description.

From there the plot thickened.

Minutes later an Amarillo policeman stopped the car, for investigation, and a man came out of the vehicle. As police talked with the suspect, a second man fired up the car and drove away.

Area police units were immediately notified that the vehicle was headed south on U.S. 87, and Canyon policemen Robert Seals, Jim Warren and Jack Magee headed north on U.S. 87 to intercept the vehicle.

"We saw him go west on Rockwell Road," Seals reported. (See BURGLARY, page 13)

Eagles Cop

14 All-District

Team Spots

The Canyon Eagles dominated the 1971 1-AAA all-district squad, placing five men on first team positions, three men in four slots on the second team and six men were awarded honorable mentions.

Larry Prichard was named all-district offensive guard for the second consecutive year. Mike Podzemny was named first team offensive end, Ric Edmondson first team offensive back, Bob Counseller first team defensive lineman and James Henry Johnson, first team defensive secondary.

Those making the second team all-district were: Randall Smith, offensive tackle; Fred Grona, offensive end and defensive lineman; and Van James, linebacker.

Those receiving honorable mention were: Sammy Kerbal, center; Chuck Wright, quarterback; Cliff Prichard, offensive back; Roy Markham, defensive lineman; Bill Moore, linebacker and Mike Shadix, defensive secondary.

All the Canyon players that received honors are seniors with the exception of sophomore Counseller junior Kerbal, junior Markham and junior Moore.

Both Perryton and Level-land placed 10 men on the squad, while Dumas had nine, Muleshoe had six and Tulia had four on the team.

Three men in the district placed on the offensive first team as well as the defensive first team. They were

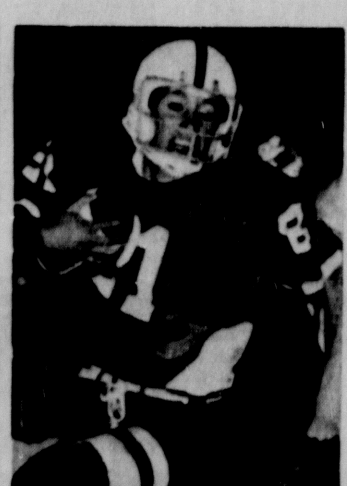

Steve Gobin, Perryton, who was named offensive end and linebacker; John Bozeman, Perryton senior, who was picked offensive guard (See EAGLES, page 7)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

I have finally seen red over Ben Bynum's insistent proposal that Randall and Potter Counties be combined into a single super county.

Ben should get a copy of Emily Post and learn some manners. Apparently he hasn't learned the etiquette of the Texas House that requires him to walk softly in another man's district.

Randall County is represented now by Bryan Poff and apparently Bynum failed to consult with Poff before announcing that he would seek a Randall-Potter County wedding.

I'm a little disappointed in Poff that he hasn't put Bynum in his place before now. Maybe Poff has too much manners to do it. He does appear to have the manners Bynum seems to lack.

I'm not the only one who's up in arms about the Bynum proposal. A former mayor of Amarillo called me about it one night last week.

"If I'd wanted to live in Potter County, I'd have moved to Potter County," he declared.

The truth is that Bynum is a demagogue. Listen to this quote from Bynum on combining Potter and Randall Counties.

"It is not easy but if it is for the GREAT GOOD of the whole people it is worth looking into."

This sounds exactly like what you'd expect from Senator Jack S. Phogbound. Good old Jack S is always doing something for the GREAT GOOD of the people but it always seems to turn out to be for the good of the Dogpatch senator and it's the people who always seem to pay.

Bynum came down to West Texas State a few weeks ago and gave students some pointers on registering to vote.

As a citizen of Canyon I would welcome the participation in government of any young people who make their home here and who and take time to study our community problems.

We have a lot of students at West Texas State University who are bonafide residents of Canyon and SHOULD be voting here.

There are also some students who spend four years in WT and never visit the square. I don't think these young voters should be helping make community decisions. They obviously are better acquainted with the communities from which they came and should be voting there.

Bynum all but advised them that it was all right to register and vote in Canyon regardless of where they plan to live after college. After all, as the Potter County representative put it, who can prove intent?

In other words, if there's no one guarding the hen house, help yourself.

Now if Ben really want to do something for the GREAT GOOD of the people let him raise his voice against retention of a Speaker of the House who is under indictment. Let him lead a movement to remove Gus Mutscher from that powerful post until the speaker's case has been resolved in the courts.

Let him lift his voice against the conference system under which Rep. Bill Heatley of Paducah is able to rewrite appropriation bills of this state and present them to the House and Senate on a take it or leave it basis.

There are a lot of things Ben could be doing for the GREAT GOOD of the people of Texas that would not require his dabbling unbidden in the affairs of a county he does not represent.

Here is a great idea: Turn idle items into cash with a low cost want ad. Call 655-2141.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We are paying our county commissioners, one of which who hasn't got a mile of county road in his precinct, $100 tax free money per month for road supervision, and a Road Supt. $700. This money could be divided among the 3 commissioners who have roads to supervise and give us back the type of roads Randall County Citizens are accustomed too. We had better roads and less cost to the county when our commissioners were earning said Road Supervisor Salary.

Clarence Beckman paved 10 miles of county road, I'd guess for less cost to the county than the 5 miles on Osage, and his 10 miles was paved in the spare time of his 4 man crew with 3 motor graders. He hired a topping contractor who left unpaid bills, while the entire equipment of Randall County was tied up on the Osage Project.

This comparison is made of our former 4 road supervisor type system against our present One-Unit Road System. The sooner we return to a precinct basis the better. There isn't a man on our pay roll that isn't capable and surely could be used by the 3 precincts with county roads.

Precinct 3 has 500 miles of road and during the time it was in 3 precincts and estimated 9 or 10 motor graders were needed to maintain the type of roads we are accustomed to using. We haven't had that many in our precinct but one time this year and that was just lately.

I am telling you what I have been told and was asked what I thought about it? I ask you the same question.

Junior High Cagers Drop Five of Six Contests

Six Canyon Junior High boys basketball teams opened their season last week.

The seventh grade Purple squad was drubbed by the Dimmitt seventh graders 49-24. Randy Langren was the high point man for the Canyon team with 12 and Mark Sullivan had eight.

The ninth grade Purple cagers were also whipped by the Dimmitt frosh, 54-24. Dimmitt jumped to a 25-10 halftime lead and held a 40-10 edge in the third quarter. Dwight Harper sank seven points for Canyon and Jack Donovan had eight.

The Dimmitt eighth graders handed the eighth grade Purple squad Canyon's third defeat of the night, 38-23. The Dimmitt cagers never lost the lead throughout the tilt. Hoss Ratliff canned 10 points for the Canyon team and was high scorer, while Ken Cooper sank four points for the Purple teamers.

The junior high White teams fared some better than the Purple teams, winning one of three contests.

The seventh grade White narrowly lost, 24-22 to the Stanton seventh graders.

Canyon held a 6-3 at the end of the first quarter, but the scored was knotted at nine all at halftime. Canyon held a three point, 17-14 lead at the end of the third stanza, but could not hold on to it through the final period. James Walling and Ricky Cooper both had nine points for Canyon. Walling and Ronnie Howell were the leading White rebounders with five apiece.

The eighth grade White teamers were trounced 40-14 by the Stanton eighth graders.

The Stanton cagers led 5-4 at the end of the first stanza, but they held Canyon scoreless in the second period while they added 12 points to their total. Ron Mills was

Our World

BY ANN BROWN
Are your emotions showing?

A blush is easily recognized as the physical manifestation of embarrassment, excitement, or anger. But what about nailbiting, allergies, obesity, alcoholism, drug addiction, smoking, migraine headaches, ulcers, and countless other maladies?

The late Dr. John A. Schindler, Chairman of the Dept. of Medicine at the Monroe Clinic, Monroe, Wis., said at least 50% of all physical ills were emotionally induced.

The late Dr. Otis Taylor, Jr., specialist in diagnosis and internal medicine, founder of the Taylor Clinic and Hospital, Lubbock, Texas, reported about 90% of his patients were victims of emotional stress.

Official statistics report half of all the hospital beds in America are filled with mental patients.

Based on present statistics, authorities predict at least 1 out of every 10 Americans will be hospitalized for emotional illness, and they theorize 1 out of 4 would profit from psychiatric treatment.

A psychological study conducted in an eastern state found 1 out of every 3 persons interviewed sufficiently emotionally disturbed to interfere with rational, productive living — external evidence of healthy emotions.

But these statistics involve people whose emotional problems are obvious. What about the physically ill patient whose illness is emotionally induced?

Several prominent psychiatrists agree that man has six basic psychological needs. They differ somewhat on the degree of importance, but all list love and security in first and second place. Recognition, self-esteem, creative expression, and new experiences follow in random order.

When even one of these basic needs is unfulfilled, the person suffers emotional maladjustment, which may result in physical illness.

Deprivation of several basic needs simultaneously usually causes an emotional breakdown.

According to Dr. Schindler, emotional stress may continue over a prolonged period of time before producing physical damage. However, brief trauma may result in a dangerous accident, and one severe emotional blow can immediately wreck one's physical function.

Dr. Taylor said early in his practice, he suspected any illness of being emotionally induced unless he could see a fractured bone. Later he decided even broken bones were usually the result of emotional stress.

To his accident-prone patients, Dr. Taylor offered some free advice along with the casts and bandages: He insisted they check up on their emotional balance and stress tolerance.

But suppose one has no one to love him, and no security? Would that not result in deprivation of the other four basic needs?

According to Dr. Schindler, it works about as well to give love and security as to get it (Jesus said it worked better).

For every lonely, unloved adult there are probably a dozen children in need of the love and guidance that adult could give. Children's homes — both church and state — are usually begging for help.

There are hosts of helpless, lonely old people desperately in need of attention. In meeting their needs, the unloved, insecure adult can find love and security, and the other four basic needs will follow.

Solomon said "A merry heart does good like a medicine, but a broken spirit dries up the bones" (Prov. 17:22). A broken spirit dehydrates more than bones. The bank account evaporates via medical bills. It also withers marriages and jobs.

The emotionally ill are difficult to live with — or work with.

If one's sick emotions are not betrayed by nervous habits, allergies, or compulsive eating or drinking, they are sure to be revealed by psychological tests required by many employers.

To exhibit a picture of health, one needs a happy frame of mind. What kind of picture are you showing?

18 Bandsmen Named To All-Region

Eighteen Canyon High School band members were named to the All-Region Band in Amarillo Monday evening, and one local girl was picked as an alternate.

The All-Region band will perform at Palo Duro High School Saturday night in Amarillo, following rehearsals Friday all day and Saturday morning.

Dr. Francis McBeth of Ouachita Baptist College in Arkansas will conduct the special band made up of students from across the Panhandle.

All-region band members and the chair they will occupy in the band include the following:

Flutes: Teddi Crager, first; Brad Garner, third chair; Sharon Lumry, fourth; Jane Taylor, ninth, and Donnetta Williams, alternate.

Clarinet: Doug Rittenberry, first; Nancy King, third; Vern Zimmerman, fourth; Leslie Baird, sixth; and David Powell, ninth.

French horn; Alan Begth-al, third, and Eric Murrell, eighth.

Alto sax: Jeff Shepic, second.

Trombone: Ronnie Cates, fourth.

Percussion: David Finke, second.

Bass clarinet: Jerry Sisk, first.

Bassoon: Mike Raillard, first, and Dan McGlasson, second.

Cornet: Ted Sharp, third.

Classes Considered

A kindergarten for four-year-olds to begin in January is being considered by First United Methodist Church. The classes would be in addition to those for five-year-olds which began last year.

The church office, 655-3540, can provide information to anyone who is interested.

Amarillo comes to Canyon to shop. Mrs. Bonnie Cringle and Mrs. Ann Test, both from Amarillo examine handwork kits in Dan's

Fifth Avenue. The two came to buy from Mrs. W.E. Parker, the owner, because "she has cottons you can't find just everywhere."

Work Makes It Christmas

For the woman who feels that Christmas won't be Christmas unless she creates something with her own hands, the Yuletide season may come in kits this year. Or she might find it in a quickly-assembled project of wood, plastic, foil, or foam.

Needlework kits for making everything from gifts to decorations are available in Canyon.

One kit is an alarm clock complete with a finished case and needlepoint background to be worked for giving or for keeping. Mrs. W.E. Parker, the owner of Dan's Fifth Avenue, said the first shipment of the clocks lasted three days. She ordered four times as many the second time. The handwork could be done in day, she estimated.

Christmas centerpieces made of thin wire dipped into liquid plastic film are also festive and easy to do in a hurry, according to Mrs. Jack Swartzell of the Ticky Tacky, craft and hobby shop.

Other possibilities for Christmas items include print transfers on plaster; wooden boxes which may be painted, covered with pictures, or decorated with beads, shells, ribbons, or other ornaments to suit the maker's fancy; foil art, which may have built-in patterns made of string or cardboard forms or may have plaster figurines inside, and decoupage in various forms.

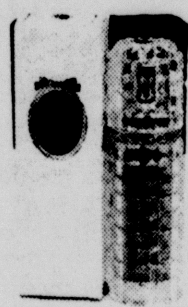

Both women suggested the making of tree ornaments from styrofoam balls. The styrofoam provides a shape which can be covered with beads, ribbon, braid, bits of old jewelry, sequins, glitter, or whatever the imagination suggests.

Other needlework possibilities include quickpoint bags or pillows, felt ornaments to be embellished with sequins, embroidery, or fringe, dolls or animals to be made from kits, in which everything but the stuffing is included, and pictures to be worked in stitchery.

One suggestion for giving is a project ready to be completed by the recipient.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY
Thank you, Canyon School Board Members, thank you, thank you, thank you. For having the vision to become involved with the City of Amarillo in a joint venture — the development of a park adjacent to Gene Howe School. According to a recent report — the deal has been consummated and hopefully, 'ere long, leveling and underground irrigation will begin. How can anyone speculate the countless hours of pleasure this little park will provide for the darlings in the Gene Howe area. We of the community send hearty thanks to you.

Congratulations to David "Spike" Coronado, Dale, Betty and Ronnie Holt who all took home a turkey. It seems as though there was a Motorcycle "Poker" Turkey Run held at the Canadian River recently. The participants had check points where they picked up a card (sealed of course) and when they reached the end of the run, the ones with the best poker hand won the turkeys. Sounds like a fun time and makes for good eating.

Welcome to newcomers in our area, The Lawrence E. Taylors, wife is named Patricia and daughter named Shanna. I have a friend who just got fired from her job and is looking for a new one. If you are interested, just call. Qualifications — great on the phone.

Bill and Suzie Dupree tooted up to Boulder, Colorado for the holidays. They went to see Bill's sister and Bill reports they had a great time and the country was simply beautiful.

With all the good eating and so much to be thankful for, surely at the top of the list must go the joy of loved ones getting together. And, home for the holidays was that good lookin' Andy Hanson, son of the Frank Hansons. Frank says Andy was doing very well, happy, and looking real good. They are looking forward to his return for the Christmas holidays.

The Glenn Walkers motored over to Hollis, Oklahoma to visit with the Glenn's folks, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Walker. Then on to Gould, Oklahoma to visit with Shirley's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duvall. Shirley says they were able to catch two good basketball games while in Gould and they really had a lovely holiday.

Many in the area will be saddened to learn of the death of Mr. Charles O'Dell. The O'Dells had moved to Harlington, Texas not too very long ago and Mr. O'Dell was buried in La Junta, Colorado. Our sincere sympathy to Mrs. O'Dell and her family and friends.

That Lawrence Taylor motored up to Captain and Ruidosa, New Mexico to go deer hunting with his brother and father. Joan reports he got his deer and had a good time.

Understand the Dale Youngs motored over to New Mexico for the holidays to visit with Dale's folks. Don't have the details, but hope they, too, had a nice time.

Ya'll be sure to catch some of our local ladies talent in the Starving Art Show down in Canyon. Those I know will be participating are Troyce Mulherin, Doris Nash, Wynonna White. They will be at Bellahs on the Square in Canyon.

Now that culture thing I told you about was a good thing. Me and my darlings caught the Nutcracker last evening. WOW, the production was great and the guest artist with the New York City Ballet Theatre can really do their thing. Should be additional inspiration to all the local participants. That little darling Vick girl was in the show. Hope quite a few of you got to see the performance.

The Bill Harps tooted down to College Station to see Duane at A&M. Had a really good time I understand and young Miss Anita White went along for the fun. Haven't gotten all the details, but do know for a fact that Ernestine had a Happy Birthday — so Happy to her — that really doesn't have anything to do with the trip — just threw it in — so if you see Ernestine — wish her a Happy.

Gotta run — phone me your news 376-9853 or 352-2089.....fresh out of spiffy phrases...phm

New Book Out By Dr. Hill

Dr. Joseph A. Hill has authored another book, this one an autobiography of his life.

Dr. Hill, who was president of West Texas State from 1918 to 1948, remains president emeritus of the university.

The books is available at the Ex-Students Association office on the WT campus and at the University Bookstore. The hardback volume will sell for $6, and the paper back will be $4.

Entitled "Autobiographical Notes on the Life of Joseph Abner Hill", the book recalls the ancestry of the 95-year-old professor and educator, and his childhood up through his move in 1969 with his wife to the Wesleyan Home in Georgetown.

Dr. Hill has written five other books, many of them dealing with the growth and development of West Texas State.

"Panhandle Plains Historical Society and its Museum" was written in 1955 and "More Than Brick and Mortar," penned in 1959.

Dr. Hill also wrote a weekly column for The Canyon News from 1961-1964.

RR Band Concert Is Set Tuesday

Rex Reeves Elementary Band will perform at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the all-purpose of the school in a concert.

Refreshments will be served following the performance.

Parents and interested persons are invited to the annual concert, according to J.W. King, director.

What A Season It Was!

It is all over now and time for the weather to turn colder and the athletes to move indoors.

But what a season it was! The Canyon Eagles were supposed to have a rebuilding season. A green defense, one that shouldn't have even come close to the outstanding 1970 defense and an offense...well that nobody was really sure about.

Bank Begins Seminars On Basic Finance

The First National Bank in Canyon introduced a new series of programs this week, when the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority of West Texas State University members and pledges were guests of the Bank for a one-evening, two-hour seminar on basic finance.

Marilyn Bourland, president of the sorority, accepted the invitation, and 57 persons attended.

The panel of speakers included Don Max Vars, president, David West, executive vice-president, Ken Kendrick, vice-president, Dean House, vice-president, Lloyd Kurtz, manager of operations, and Bill Hayes, customer relations counsel.

The speakers covered a range of subjects, which included "How to Apply for a Job", "How to Keep Your Check Book Straight", "What is a Clearing House?", "Installment Lending", "Agricultural Loans", and "Bank Administration".

Kathy Gerald, WTSU student advisory board member, and a member of the sorority, was present.

Additional programs will be presented during the remainder of the University year.

They had a new coach, with new methods and different ideas on what would make a good football team club. They had a schedule that included what would eventually be the number one and two finishers in the AAAA district just north of us, a schedule that the Eagles couldn't possibly surmount and maybe not even survive.

When one attended a practice session, the quiet, easy manner of Ron Mills, the head coach, even further shook the confidence of many a Monday morning quarterbacks.

The main factor that on-lookers had failed to take into consideration was one that can not be measured in statistics or on the scales, and that is desire.

The Eagles gave their supporters a lump in the throat on their very first outing, against Clovis, that lump of anxiety was to remain there the remainder of the season.

It wasn't until the final 12 minutes of play in that game that the Canyon gridders showed their might and barely squeaked past the Clovis squad. But that was just the first of many games the Eagles were to win in the last quarter of play. They pulled the wins out of the fire against Lubbock High, Dumas, Levelland and Muleshoe. A fourth quarter rally against the Perryton Rangers helped salvage a 28-28 tie and the win against Dumas provided in the final stanza courtesy of the defensive unit rather than the offense.

The last quarter wins proved, according to Mills, "That the Eagles were not quitters, that they had a lot of guts."

Canyon will lose 13 of 18 starters next year to graduation and the 1972 campaign could probably be classified as another rebuilding year. But some of the returning starters and lettermen include 228 pound sophomore tackle, Bob Counseller, 185-pound junior tackle Roy Markham, 188-pound sophomore guard, Tom Grimes and 215-pound center Sammy Kerbel, all on the line. In the backfield halfback Matt Hanson who gained more than 400 yards this year has one year of eligibility left, defensive halfback Gary Gerber also has another year and junior wingback-quarterback Bill Moore will be back.

Although the Eagles will lose a considerable amount of talent this year, enough remains of a sound base for another strong ballclub for the 1972 100-yard wars.

Music Recital Set Thursday By WT Students

Solo performances by 12 West Texas State University music students will highlight a recital Thursday by the WTSU music department. Performance time is 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium and the recital is free to the public. The program will include Guilman's "Morceau Symphonique," Vanhal's "Concerto in C Major,"

Weber's "Concertino," Mozart's "Il mio tesoro" from "Don Giovanni," Ibert's "Concerto for Flute," Telemann's "Sonata," and Barlow's "The Winter's Passed."

Puccini's "Che gelida manina" from "La Boheme," de Fesch's "Sonata in D minor," Telemann-Hatch's "Sonata Baroque," Verdi's "Il lacerato spirito" from Simon Boccanegra, and Jacob's "Concerto for Trombone and Orchestra."

Tascosa High School Presents Nutcracker

A rollicking Christmas party, a sparkling snowy Wonderland, a visit to the kingdom of sweets and a ferocious battle between mice and toy soldiers will be part of Tascosa High School's "Nutcracker Dec. 9, 10, and 11.

Four students from Canyon, Julie Brantles, Becky Jo Lindsey, Tawny Henderson and Rene Clemente, will perform in the production.

The "Nutcracker" will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets will be $1.50 and mail orders for tickets may be sent to Tascosa High School.

Prior to the Nutcracker, at 7 p.m., a Santa Claus Lane at the high school will be opened for the children. Santa Claus will make an appearance with treats for the children.

Anyone purchasing advance tickets to any performance will also receive a stub which entitles them to a chance at a drawing for 25 prizes. The drawing will be held after the Dec. 11 performance.

The Nutcracker will feature a cast of 55 dancers and will be accompanied by the Tascosa High School orchestra. The production is directed by Neil Hess and he was assisted with choreography by Bene Arnold of the Utah Ballet Company.

The production of the Nutcracker will be the first done by a Texas high school company, and will be almost identical to the one done by the San Francisco Ballet Co.

At the opening of the production, Clara and Fritz are preparing a party for their friends. They can't wait for their partners to finish decorating the party room. At last the doors are opened and Clara and Fritz dance before their Christmas tree.

Mrs. Mink Describes South Dakota Mrs. Randy Mink showed slides of crops, industry, sports, and tourist attractions in South Dakota at a Nov. 17 meeting of Chi Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi International in the Girl Scout House.

Carol singing, a story, and a Christmas tree will be features of a party being planned by the Woman's Book Club for 3 p.m. Dec. 8 in the home of Mrs. Irving SoRelle.

Mrs. E.J. Larson is to tell the story.

Other hostesses are Mesdames L.H. Owens, L.H. Brotherton, W.E. Parker, K.E. Hines, D.K. McGehee, Carrie R. Moore, Alfred Belah, and Keith Poole.

City-School
Taxes Reach
80 Per Cent

About $980,000 has been collected in school and city taxes so far this year, according to Conway Kuykendall.

The city has collected $229,000 and the school has collected $751,000 to date. This amounts to 75 per cent of school taxes and 80 per cent of the city taxes.

Kuykendall said that the amount for the school is about the same as was collected at this same time last year.

He said that it is difficult to compare the city collections this year with last year because the city did not offer a discount last year.

INVITATION

Men, women, children to enroll in the Bible Memory Associations 27th Bible memorizing course. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105.

Cross-Jones Honored
With Dorm Open House

An open house for two longtime members of the West Texas State University faculty and the new high-rise residence halls named in their honor will be held from 2-5 p.m. Sunday.

They are Miss Ruth Cross, former dean of women and head of the women's physical education department for 40 years who retired in 1969, and W. Mitchell Jones, former dean of men and a member of the College of Education faculty since 1926 who retired this year.

Mrs. Jean Moore Roberts, dean of women, said that although the open house will be centered around the new dormitories, the public is invited to tour other women's residence halls on campus.

Ruth Cross Hall is a six-story structure housing 205 women students. Mitch Jones Hall is seven stories and will accommodate 296 men. They were completed last summer at a cost of $2.69 million.

An art exhibit by members of the West Texas State faculty will be exhibited in Cross Hall, guided tours of both dormitories will be conducted and refreshments will be served during the open house.

Members of the Inter-Residence Hall Council, the councils of each dormitory and the social committee of the Student Activities Council will assist in the program.

Each of the new dormitories is air conditioned, fully carpeted and has a walled sundeck on top for the convenience of students. In addition, there are two small outside balconies and one large one with lawn furniture on them on each floor.

Cross Hall will be the focal center for social gathering of residents of the two dormitories, located on the east side of the campus near the multimillion dollar Activities Center opened last year.

Although male students will not be permitted above the first floor of Cross Hall, there are four lounge areas on the ground floor of the women's dorm for use by both men and coeds.

One lounge is for television viewing, another is a game room, a third is for sitting and talking and the fourth is the general lounge which has a large fire place.

Cross Hall also is equipped with three apartments for use of university guests.

Both new dorms have two study rooms and two lounge areas on each floor, along with a laundry room and another for vending machines, such as candy and soft drinks.

A students kitchen with hot plates and popcorn poppers is located in Cross Hall.

The university maintains 10 other residence halls, five for women and five for men.

Credit Transfer
To Be Topic

Problems of transferring computer science course credits from Texas junior colleges to West Texas State University will be discussed Saturday by faculty and students of the institutions.

Representatives of at least 13 junior colleges offering computer science courses are expected for the round table discussion, said Dr. Philip Gensler, head of the Department of Computer Information Systems at West Texas State.

"I hope a better understanding between junior colleges and WTSU and a curriculum guideline for courses in junior and senior colleges will come out of this meeting," he said.

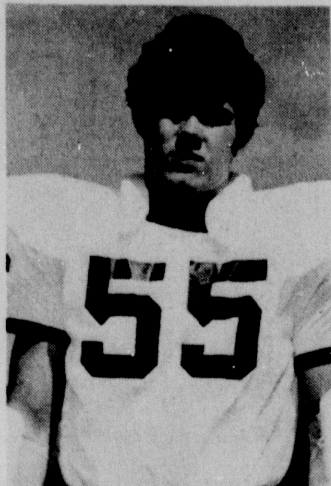

The round table stems from a panel discussion at the annual meeting of the Texas Association for Educational Data Systems in Austin in October, Gensler said.

Bynum Awaits AG Answer On Counties

Rep. Ben Bynum is waiting for an opinion from the Texas Attorney General's office concerning the legalities in combining Potter and Randall Counties.

Bynum, who said last month he is investigating the possibility of forming one large county instead of having two counties, believes an answer will not be given until after the first of the year.

The representative said, "It is not easy but if it is for the great good of the whole people it is worth looking into."

He explained he requested an opinion of whether the legislature has the power to form a new county of whether it would be submitted to the people for a vote.

"Whatever the conditions, I hope the people will have an opportunity to vote on the question," Bynum affirmed.

He also noted the Legislative Council is doing research on how to implement gradual turnover from two counties to one. Bynum said he believes the procedure should be a long-term one, perhaps over a five or 10 year period.

"In fact, perhaps we could provide for dual county seats for 25 years," he predicted.

He urged residents of the two counties to quit "feuding", and begin working together for the growth of the area.

"Our destinies are interlinked, and we should stop being petty," he stressed.

"If West Texas State University grows, Amarillo benefits, and if Amarillo benefits, Canyon will benefit."

"We must look to the common interest for the good of all of us."

"The politicians in Dallas and Houston don't care about us, so we must stick together," he urged in speaking of relations between Amarillo and Lubbock.

"We need to stop the squabbling between Lubbock and Amarillo, and get busy working for common goals."

Bynum pointed out problems in both Randall and Potter counties are shared by the other.

"We are stuck with one another, and by combining the counties we could cut down on duplication and save taxpayers money."

"I have tremendous faith in the future of this area, and I know the people will work together to see it grow."

Choir Concert Set Dec. 16

Canyon High School choir will present the annual Christmas concert at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 16 in the high school auditorium, according to choir director Tom Jennings.

The Chorale, Girls choir, the Mixed Choir and the Madrigals will perform during the evening, along with a string orchestra in the second half.

The program will include the following selections by the Chorale: "Carol of The Bells", "Shepherd's Chorus" by Menotti, "He Is Born" by Wagner, and "Christmas Is" by Simeone.

Girls Choir will perform "Eternal Son of God" by Kirk, "Still, Still, Still" by Brahms, "Three Songs for Christ" by Gradman, and "Fum, Fum, Fum" by Robert Shaw.

Mixed Choir will sing "It Is A Great Day of Joy."

In the second portion of the performance, the Chorale will perform Vivaldi's Gloria with the string orchestra.

Tickets will sell for $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

P.J. Richards Dies, Services Set Today

Funeral services for Paul Jerome Richards, 83, will be conducted today at 10:30 a.m. in LaGrone Funeral Chapel with Rev. J. Frank Peery officiating.

Burial will follow in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pallbearers include Richard Gidden, Edwin Ray Gidden, Pat Campbell, Lewel

Johnston, JoZach Byrd and Jack Downing.

Mr. Richards was born Jan. 3, 1888 in Snyder, and had resided in Randall County for 50 years.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church and served in World War I. He was a retired farmer.

Mr. Richards died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock in LaCasa Canyon Nursing Home.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Jewel Gidden of 2601 Fifth Ave., Canyon, and Mrs. Wilson Campbell, 1613 Seventh Ave., Canyon, three nieces, Mrs. Sybil String, Mrs. Dorothy Byrd and Mrs. Juanita Johnston, three nephews, Pat Campbell, Richard Gidden and Edwin Ray Gidden.

Board Faces Full Agenda

Canyon commissioners dive into a heavy agenda tonight at their regular meeting at 7 o'clock in the community center.

On the lengthy agenda include consideration of a CATV bid opened two weeks ago, a flood plain resolution, possible paving policy changes.

The Jan. 6 townhall meeting will also be discussed, as will a possible engineer's study necessary to complete the city's comprehensive plan.

The townhall meeting will be a gathering of all residents in an effort to get "feedback" to the city dads about needed projects.

"We want to know what people want and are thinking," one commissioner explained. "And we would like to do some long-term planning for the city with the residents involved in that planning."

Eagles. . .

Canyon senior Grona was named second team offensive end and second team defensive lineman.

Ric Edmondson, Canyon's little scatback romped for 756 yards during the regular season and the bi-district tilt with Andrews.

Defensive safety James Johnson's senior year was highlighted by an 80 yard touchdown kickoff return in the fourth quarter against the Perryton Rangers.

End Podzemny proved to be Wright's favorite target during the season. During several games in the season Podzemny made clutch fourth quarter catches that helped push Canyon on to victories.

Smith, Larry Prichard and Kerbel helped spearhead the Canyon offensive line, while Cliff Prichard proved to be the Eagle power runner all year. Prichard scampered for 575 yards in the eleven game season.

Counsellor, James, Markham and Shadix anchored down the Canyon defensive unit, which performed all year well above pre-season predictions.

MISS JOAN BRAAFLADT

Miss Braafladt To Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Braafladt of Dimmitt have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joan, to Avery Thrasher, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.W. Thrasher 1605 Second Ave.

The wedding is to take place in Dimmitt's First Presbyterian Church on Dec. 30.

Miss Braafladt is a 1970 graduate of Dimmitt High School. She is a sophomore at West Texas State University.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from Canyon High School in 1968. He is employed by Frank Parra Chevrolet in Irving.

Miss Jan Sternenbergh Honored With Showers

Miss Jan Sternenbergh, the bride-elect of Keith Thomas Keeling, was recently honored with two showers.

A miscellaneous shower was held Nov. 18 in the home of Mrs. J. Manly Bryan.

Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Miss Mary Kate Keeling, and Miss Mendy Sternenbergh served from a table covered with candlelight illusion and trimmed with French lace. The centerpiece was of pink daisies and American beauty roses.

Mrs. Alfred R. Sternenbergh and Mrs. Charles Woodward presided at the guest book.

Hostesses in addition to Mrs. Bryan were Mesdames Don Byars, Larry Cook, William A. Cooper, William B. Davis, Dick Dawdy, H.R. Fulton Jr., Nolon Henson, T.H. Lair, Raymond Railroad, Francis Shell, Jack Swartzell, Phil Swartzell, Jack Taylor, A. M. Warren, and W.J. Wooten Jr.

PERSONAL SHOWER

The home of Mrs. Dudley Moore Jr. was the scene of a personal shower on Nov. 19.

Miss Patty Price served from a table laid with a cloth of white linen cutwork and centered with red roses and pink daisies.

Miss Terri Donovan assisted the bride and Miss Mary Kate Keeling presided at the guest book.

Other hostesses were Mesdames A.L. Fassauer, Harold Erwin, Murphy White, and JoZach Byrd.

Club To See Poinsettias

Members of the Good Neighbors Club will meet at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the Episcopal Student Center to make a tour of Irwin Gardens before the nursery ships its poinsettias to Christmas markets.

The group is to return to the center at 10:30 to have its annual cookie swap. Each person attending is to bring a batch of cookies and take home an assortment. Recipes will also be shared.

The meeting is open to all who are interested.

The meeting is open to all who are interested.

ADPi To Have Old-Time Yule

Alpha Delta Pi will celebrate an "old-fashioned Christmas" at the Kappa Alpha Lodge Friday evening.

Santa Claus is to appear, and, for the dance following dinner, Cold Duck, a group from Amarillo, will play.

Catering is to be by the Country Barn.

Highland HD Plans Dinner

The Highland Home Demonstration has planned a family Christmas dinner and gift exchange in the home of Mrs. Melvin McClure at 1 p.m. Dec. 19.

Couple Has Family Visitors

Visitors in the J. P. Hammons home over the Thanksgiving holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Orley Hammons of Cloverdale, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Don Hammons and children of Aurora, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Richardson and children of Panhandle, and Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Hammons and Kenneth of Canyon.

Family Visits

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Edwards during the Thanksgiving holidays were their son Jerome Edwards, his wife Judy, and his two daughters, Deborah and Deanna.

The son is a counselor at the Federal Corrections Institute in Texarkana. He is also working on his doctorate at East Texas State University in Commerce.

Amaryllis Club Plans Lunch

The Amaryllis Porcelain Art Club has planned a covered dish luncheon and an exchange of handpainted china at noon Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Roma Payne, 2400 15th Ave.

A Christmas program of songs and stories will follow the luncheon.

MISS BETTE HENRY

Miss Henry Plans February Wedding

Mrs. O.O. Henry of Canyon has announced the engagement of her daughter, Bette, to Terry L. Pitts, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Pitts of Levelland.

The ceremony is to take place Feb. 5 in the First United Methodist Church of Levelland.

Miss Henry is a graduate of West Texas State University and is employed by Merchants Accounting Services, Inc., in Lubbock.

The presentation is under the auspices of Sigma Tau Delta.

Fix "Something Sweet" For Company

Whether it's drop-in company just passing through town or the family for a big Christmas dinner, holiday visitors make every hostess want to have something special to serve.

For the hostess who'd like the "something special" to be "something sweet," the Canyon News women's department offers a collection of time-tested favorites.

CHOCOLATE ROLL

(from a Hungarian-born virtuoso cook)

8 eggs
8 tbsp. sugar
8 heaping tbsp. pecans, ground very fine
2 tbsp. bread crumbs
1 tsp. ground espresso coffee

Separate eggs, stir sugar into yolks until foamy. Whip egg whites stiff, pour in egg yolks and other ingredients. Mix very gently. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 min. or until cake tests done. Roll, let cool, fill, and ice.

FILLING

1 cup whipping cream, sweetened to taste

ICING

1 stick unsalted butter
2 egg yolks
sugar to taste
Nestle's Quik, to taste
about 1 tsp. instant coffee barely softened with water.

Soften butter, cream with sugar, add egg yolks, Quik, and instant coffee. Blend well.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES

(from a German recipe)

Beat thoroughly:
1 cup soft shortening
2 cups brown sugar
2 eggs

Stir in:
1/2 cup sour milk, butter, milk, or water
Sift together and stir in:
3 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt

The cookies may be baked as is, or for Christmas, you may add:

1 1/2 cups broken pecans
2 cups candied pineapple, cherries, citron, etc.
2 cups cut-up dates.

Place pecan half on each cookie.
Chill at least 1 hour. Drop rounded teaspoonfuls about 2 inches apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake until set—just until, when touched lightly with finger, almost no imprint remains. Bake at 400 degrees for 8 to 10 min. Makes about 6 dozen 2 1/2-inch cookies.

CHERRY CAKE

(For a change from the usual fruitcake.
There is no shortening in the recipe.)

Beat:
4 eggs
Add:
1 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
Sift together:
1 cup flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
Drop into sifted mixture:
1/2 pound candied cherries
1/2 pound dates
2 slices candied pineapple
1 quart nuts
(Fruit may be chopped or, ex-

Mix in eggs, sugar and vanilla. Grease pan, line with waxed paper, and grease paper. Bake at 250 degrees for 1-1 1/2 hours. Remove from pan onto cooling rack immediately and tear off paper.

SLICE AND SERVE

(to keep for drop-in guests, if you can)

Prepare 1 cup dates by placing in a sieve and pouring boiling water over them. Cut fine with scissors. Coat with 1 tbsp. flour.

Sift together:
2/3 cup flour
1/2 cup baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt.

Beat:
3 eggs until foamy
Gradually add:
3/4 cup sugar, beating constantly.

Blend in:
1/2 tsp. vanilla.
Fold in dry ingredients, dates, and 1/2 cup pecans.

Spread in 15 x 11 inch jelly roll pan lined with waxed paper, greased well, and lightly floured.

Drain 20 maraschino cherries, arrange 10 at each end of batter, about 1/2 inch from edge of pan.

Bake at 325 degrees for 25-35 min.

Turn out hot cake onto waxed paper which has been sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Remove paper, trim edges of cake and cut crosswise into two 11 x 7 1/2 inch rectangles. Roll each one tightly, beginning with the cherry end. Wrap in waxed paper and cool. Spread with thin frosting and roll in pecans. Chill and slice.

CHESS PIE

(a real Southern delicacy)

Cream:
3/4 cup butter
1 1/4 cup sugar
Add: 5 egg yolks, well-beaten
1 tsp. vanilla

Put in unbaked pie shell and bake at 275 degrees about 45 min. or until firm.

Beat:
3 egg whites
Add 2 tbsp. sugar for each egg

Top baked pie with mixture. Brown. Cool before eating.

PIE CRUST FOR CHESS PIE

2 cups flour
Cut in:
2/3 cup shortening
Add:
1 tsp. sugar
1 egg and about 2 tbsp. water.

Mix and roll out.

Bazaar Set

Matson Healthy Again After Battle With Gout

By BENNY TURNER
The huge man uncoiled from his chair, but his hand-shake was rather gentle, as if he was restraining himself.
The man was Randy Matson, world track and field record holder in the shot put.
For four long months his career was in jeopardy, at a time when a shot put should be reaching his peak. Matson was unable to put the shot due to an ailing wrist. The doctors told him he had gout, a painful inflammation of the joint due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It was thought that it was caused, in Matson's case, from too much throwing.

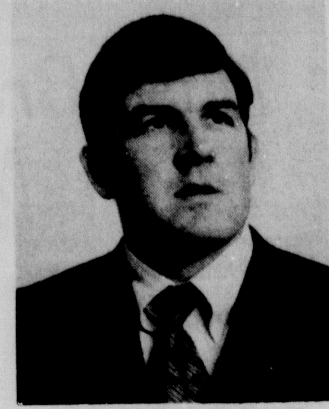

"I was kinda worried for a long time," Matson said, "I thought I would have to give up throwing I tried everything—pills, shots, sound treatment—everything. I was about to go to a doctor in Oklahoma City to have it cut on (operated on) and it just cleared up.

"There is the man that did it," Matson said with an appreciative smile as the West Texas State University trainer Lynn Laird walked into the office.
Matson, whose 6-6 x 272 pound frame seemed to fill up his small office continued, "I am in real good shape. I have done more running this year than I have in the past two or three years. I am bench pressing 430 pounds right now, which is about 15 pounds of my lifetime best, but I am squatting 470 pounds once and 435 pounds five times, which is as good or better than I have ever done before."
Last year Matson's best put was 68-8, which is well over two-feet short of his world record put of 71'-5 1/4".

Last year I had bad technique problems. I don't know why, but I just couldn't seem to get it worked out. The best year I ever had was probably 1970. I threw 71-4 which is just over an inch under the record and I was undefeated that year."
Each year Matson's competition gets better and the pressure becomes more keen. Last year two East German putters heaved the shot over 69-foot. Another East German weightman putted just over 67-foot, but was injured before the season was over. "The East Germans feel like they will have three putters going over 70-foot before the Olympics next year. Anyone that goes over 70 in Munich will be hard to beat, because you just don't throw as well in the Olympics.

"There are long waits between your warm-up time and when you throw, then long waits between each throw and there is a lot of pressure," Matson said.
Pessimism began creeping into his voice as he said, "This is an important year for me. It could be my last. I am now 26, which is not too old for a putter. They say that a putter should be at his peak between 28 and 30 years old. But I was third in the world last year. I just don't care to keep on throwing as long as I am second or third and I don't know whether I am getting better.

"I just have to see for myself if I have gone as far as I can go. I guess I am still chasing the record. But the traveling bothers me. Most of my traveling is east and west and I lose or gain one or two hours wherever I go. Most of the meets are on the west coast and most of the putters live out there. So they don't have to travel very far," Matson said rather despondently.
"I also don't like to be away from my family that much. I will be gone nearly every weekend next year," he concluded.
January 15, will be the first meet of the year for Matson in Albuquerque, N. M.

Sports Injury Seminar Starts Dec. 11 At WT

West Texas State University will host a Sports Injury Seminar Dec. 11, in the university's Activity Center. Eight speakers are slated for the event, which opens with registration at 8 a.m. Fee for the day-long seminar is $2, which includes the noon meal.

The seminar is open for student trainers, school athletic trainers, coaches team physicians, and any other interested persons.

The speakers are Randy Matson, world shot put champion; Jim Dodson, head trainer at Midland High School; Dr. Louis Finney, M. D., neurosurgeon, Amarillo; Mike Green, head trainer Tascosa High School, Amarillo; Dr. Kenneth Johnston, M. D., orthopedic surgeon, Amarillo; Herb Kensing, head trainer Plainview High School; Lynn Laird, head trainer West Texas State University; and Richard "Swede" Nordquist, equipment manager, West Texas State.

Among the subjects will be lower leg problems (shin splints, etc.), ankle and foot injuries, athletic equipment, knee evaluation and exercise program, head and neck injuries; weight training for athletics, sprains, contusions to thigh area, shoulder injuries, internal injuries, and a practical application of supportive strappings.

Rifle Team Wins Match

The West Texas State University Rifle Team will fire a High Plains Winter League match against Borger Dec. 3 in Canyon.

The team defeated Panhandle State College on Nov. 20 at Goodwell, Okla., in a Tri-State Rifle League Match.

WTSU won the shoulder to shoulder match over Panhandle State scoring 1044 to 940. Howard Denton was high shooter for the match firing a 269 for WTSU. Second high shooter was Bill Bevers, WT, with a score of 266.

Firing team members for WT were Denton, Bevers, Gerry Ingram, Donald Fewell and Dave Bradley.

The team will go to El Paso and compete in the 5th U.S. Army Texas-New Mexico Conference match Dec. 11 at Ft. Bliss.

Anyone interested in competitive firing and trying out for the WT team should contact MSG Fisher of the WT Military Science Department or any team member.

Christmas Idea

An ideal Christmas gift has been found for the season's homemaker, the nervous bride or a bachelor friend.

That's the Canyon Eagle Band cookbook, which sells for $3.65, and lists such favorites as Cardamom Cranberries, cracker jacks, party mix (for those Christmas festivities), fried okra, beef stroganoff, turkey seasoning, cream puffs, brandy fruit, coke, and even home-made beer.

Band parents have suggested the books be purchased, and delivered early — to guarantee a truly great meal for Christmas dinner.

office to request assets six or seven times between Aug. 15 and April of 1971.

He said that he had sent Roberts an approximate $100 to $150,000 during this time and that Roberts would send back a receipt for the assets.

Horton said that following Aug. 15, he took the power of attorney given him by Roberts along with the other documents signed by Roberts to the county clerks office in Dallas and filed them.

He said that Roberts gave him instructions to transfer his bank stock to the Heritage National Properties Management Co. a company owned by Horton.

Amarillo Accounts

Horton said that as part of the agreement, Roberts had an option to buy all the outstanding stock in Heritage National.

Horton opened two bank accounts at the Western National Bank in Amarillo, one in the name of Leon C. Horton, power of attorney for Robert L. Roberts and the other in the name of Heritage National.

Horton said he chose the Western National Bank because Roberts for reasons of his own, had assets he wanted transferred far out of Dallas County.

He said that John Stevens, then president of Western National and now chairman of the board of directors, is a brother to Horton's law associate, Mitchell D. Stevens, and that he chose the Western National for this reason.

Horton said he had $40,000 in bonds and that these were delivered to Roberts through a courier. Horton said he also made withdrawals from Roberts bank account in Amarillo and made deposits in other banks, some of them in Horton's name.

Horton said he was to receive $50,000 for managing Roberts' affairs while he was away and that he made periodic withdrawals for his own compensation. Horton said he had only taken about $25,000 of the $50,000 for his own compensation.

Horton said he also spent Robert's money in defense of the chairman of the local American Party in Dallas, on Roberts' instructions. "The American Party was the apple of the old man's eye," Horton said.

Expert Testifies

Lewis, testifying in the case as a handwriting expert, exhibited charts of enlargements of the questioned documents and charts of the standard signature of Roberts given to him to make a comparison.

One chart contained signatures from the power of attorney from Roberts to Horton, dated July 25, 1970, and three signatures that appeared on stock certificates from the Bank of Services and Trust in Dallas dated Jan. 4, 1971.

The second chart contained signatures from a warranty deed on about one acre of land signed July 25, 1970, a substitute power of attorney from Roberts to Horton also dated July 25, 1970, an assignment of a lien of $300,000, and a warranty deed for the transfer of eight tracts of land from Roberts to Horton on July 25.

The third chart contained signatures from seven stock certificates all signed March 8, 1971.

Lewis testified that the signature on all of these documents shown on the three charts were not the authentic signature as given to him of Robert L. Roberts.

Lewis then showed two charts containing samples of the authentic signature of Roberts, taken from deposit slips signed April 19, 1970, a petition signed April 15, 1969, a check signed on Jan. 17, 1968, deposit slips signed on April 14, 1970, March 23, 1970, and a return address envelope signed July 25, 1970. Other authentic signatures were shown from the endorsement of cashiers checks from the Banks of Services and Trust in Dallas on June 10, 1970, Sept. 2, 1969 and a return address on a letter dated July 30, 1970.

Forgery Confirmed

Lewis said there had been an effort to simulate Roberts' signature but that the signature had been downgraded, that it was not written in a free style.

"The person could have done a better job on the quality of the handwriting," Lewis said. Lewis pointed out various characteristics in both the standard signatures and the questioned signatures that did not match.

Lewis said he could not tell who wrote the signatures of Roberts on the questioned documents. Lewis said that he thought that on one document that the signatures of the two witnesses were written by the same person and that on another document that the same person who signed Roberts signature may also have witnessed the document.

On cross-examination by Joe Flemming, a Houston attorney representing Horton, Lewis testified on the various reasons why a person's handwriting would change.

On a question from Flemming, Lewis said that arthritis would change a person's handwriting but would not change the subconscious characteristic of a person's signature.

Lewis said that the signature on the documents signed July 25, 1970, were of a worse quality than the documents signed later even though they were signed by the same person and that he had never seen a person's handwriting improve when a physical defect was present.

Lewis said that there were other reasons why a person's handwriting would change but that the writing habits of the person would still exist and show up in his signature.

Roberts Disappears

Al Bergeron, of Dallas, a companion and bodyguard to Roberts, testified on Monday, the opening day of the trial.

Bergeron said that Roberts called him on Aug. 15 and asked him to come to his home at 10:30 p.m. that evening. Bergeron said that immediately before going to Robert's home he tried to call him which was a prearrangement if he was to visit Roberts.

Bergeron said there was no answer at Robert's home and that he tried repeatedly to call him and then became alarmed and went to the house.

Bergeron said Roberts car was parked in the wrong place and the front door to the house was open when he arrived. He said, "I sensed something was wrong, yelled inside for Tex (Roberts) and Jesse (Miss Forsythe), and then went inside."

Bergeron said there was no one in the house and that he checked the grounds around the house. Roberts lived on a 10-acre tract of land in north Dallas.

He said that on Aug. 16, after searching all day that he called the Dallas Police.

Bergeron said Horton contacted him by phone a few days later and told him that Roberts had gone out of town but that he wouldn't say where.

Horton indicated to Bergeron, he said, that he had power of attorney for Roberts and wanted information concerning the estate. Horton then asked him, he said, to visit several Dallas banks with him.

Horton went into the safety deposit boxes, Bergeron said, and took stocks, and bonds and packages of money and put them in his briefcase.

Bergeron said that after Aug. 20 he was employed by Horton to continue to care for the properties owned by Roberts and that Horton set up an RLR Bank account or maintenance fund where he was to deposit all money collected from the property.

Bergeron said that he felt there were inequities in the way Horton was handling the Roberts estate and that he gathered all the information he could and took it to Paul Chitwood, a Dallas attorney used previously by Roberts.

Bergeron said that he paid himself $100 a month out of the maintenance account for his services and that he took $500 out of the account to hire a handwriting expert to examine several documents.

Bergeron said he operated with Horton until April 29, 1970, when he told Horton to produce Roberts or face a court of inquiry, which was held in Dallas May 6, 1970.

Inquiry Held

Bergeron said that instead of Roberts, Horton produced a letter that Horton said was written by Roberts and mailed from New Orleans.

Paul Chitwood testified that he had known Roberts since 1952 and had represented him in July and August of 1970. He said that Aug. 10 was the last time he communicated with Roberts.

Chitwood said he had talked to Horton on the phone during the latter part of August and that Horton told him that Roberts had gone to Oklahoma City for medical treatment.

Chitwood said Bergeron came to his office in April, 1971, and that he immediately contacted Lewis to examine documents and met with Dallas sheriff's office the next day. As a result of the conversation with the sheriff's office, Chitwood said, a court of inquiry was convened.

Stock Transferred

John Stevens, chairman of the board of Western National, said that Horton came into the bank on Aug. 27 to open an account and brought $84,000 worth of checks with him.

Stevens testified to the withdrawals of several amounts of money from the Leon C. Horton, power of attorney for Robert L. Roberts, account.

He said that on Jan. 4, 1971 the bank received 40 shares of Bank and Services and Trust Stock from New Orleans and that the stock was sent to a transfer agent who wouldn't transfer them without the power of attorney.

He said the stock was sent back and was subsequently transferred into the Heritage National account at the bank.

Stevens said that during the period from Aug. 1970 to May of 1971 that the Horton-Roberts account decreased and the Heritage National Account increased.

Stevens said that Horton had never asked him to do anything illegal or dishonest.

J.R. Hurt, a certified public accountant from Dallas, testified that he was appointed by the court of inquiry in Dallas to determine what happened to Roberts assets.

Hurt said he had worked on the case since June of 1971 and had determined how much of Robert's money had gone through Horton's hands.

He said that of the $206,000 in Roberts-Horton account at Western National that $122,000 went for the benefit of Roberts estate or properties.

Assets Missing

He said that $73,000 went for the benefit of others. Of the $331,000 in stock that Roberts owned, Hurt said that $145,000 had been sold, $22,000 went to the Heritage National, and that $120,000 worth were still missing.

Hurt testified that cash amounts of $18,000, $13,500, $9,500, $4,975 and $20,000 went into Horton's personal bank accounts.

Don Hamon of Dallas Metro Squad testified of his efforts to locate Roberts.

John Thompson, an attorney in the same firm with Chitwood, testified that he was with Roberts from 11:30 a.m. to about 4 p.m. on July 25, 1970, the day that Roberts allegedly signed the power of attorney for Horton.

Correspondents Needed By News

The Canyon News is looking for correspondents to write informative columns concerning the activities and achievements of residents in various sections of the county.

A resident from each of the following areas is needed: Tanglewood, Palisades, Mesalero Park, Siesta Mobile Home Park and Happy.

Anyone interested in reporting on the happenings of your area please contact the News office, 655-2141.

He said that he was working on a law suit which Roberts was to file against a construction firm.

Allen Plans Tillage Talk

The featured speaker at a "Minimum Tillage" meeting sponsored by the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District at 10 a.m. Friday will be Allen King, conservation agronomist with the USDA Soil Conservation Service, headquartered in Amarillo.

The meeting in the Umbarger Knights of Columbus Hall is open to all interested farmers and landowners. The hall is just east of the Umbarger School Gymnasium.

Ed Wieck, chairman of the district's board of directors called King, "One of the foremost authorities on minimum tillage. He added, "The program will consist of a slide presentation on minimum tillage and no-tillage."

King is also to discuss economics, chemicals, equipment available and methods for minimum tillage. His office serves about one-third of Texas.

Don Dolle, soil conservationist for the Canyon Work Unit, will give a slide talk on actual plots in Randall County where minimum tillage is being used.

Mrs. Joe Fishbacher and daughters, Valerie, Bobby Joe, and Tracy returned Monday from an enjoyable two-week visit with her family in California. Glynnis was happy to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rowland and her four younger brothers and sisters. She had not seen her brother Steve since before his tour of duty in Viet Nam three years ago. The children enjoyed Disneyland and the zoos at San Francisco, Stockton, and Fresno. Glynnis was impressed with the view of the ocean from Bay Bridge but depressed at the squalor of San Francisco. The flight home was the fourth one for the well-traveled little girls.

Train-Car Accident Sunday A.M.

A Canyon woman was treated and released from Neblett Memorial Hospital Sunday morning following a car-train accident in the city around 12:14 a.m.

According to investigating officer Robert Seals, the woman was not injured in the accident, but was being taken to the hospital when the incident occurred.

Seals explained a car driven by Wayne McIntosh of Amarillo left 8th St. at First Ave. and stuck on the railroad tracks. The five occupants left the car when a train appeared.

No one was injured, but the 1962 car was carried 150 feet after impact.

Ady Lucille Murrell of 1908 Seventh Ave., Canyon, was taken on to the hospital by a passerby to be treated for convulsions. Other occupants in the car were Mike Darnell of Amarillo, Randy Lee Darnell of Amarillo, James Ellis Johnson of Canyon, and Kathy Murrell of Canyon.

Hinders Heads Jr. Livestock

Raymond Hinders was elected president of the Randall County Junior Livestock Association in a unanimous vote Tuesday night, and Wesley Bourn will serve as new vice president.

Other officers elected at the annual dinner and meeting in the Canyon Community Center included Meade Michelle, secretary-treasurer; Nolon Henson, general superintendent; and Richmond Hales, delegate-at-large.

Members voted to limit the number of directors to six, and officers, the delegate-at-large and the immediate past president will be on the board.

Walter Cranmer was president of the organization last year.

Hinders presented the evening program on his recent visit to Spain and that country's importing of American grain sorghum.

"We want to encourage Spain importers to use grain sorghum instead of corn," he explained. "Many of them won't buy milo at any price but would rather use corn."

I-27...

Canyon city commission and the county commission, which tends to favor route A. Bryan said it was his impression that the county commissioners felt the cost of right-of-way would be higher for the western route than for the east route. Highway commissioner Herbert Petry pointed out that actually the finding would be from the federal government and no cost to the county.

Greer also asked if the city commissioners had attempted to discuss the difference of opinion with the county commissioners.

Bryan replied in the affirmative, but that they had been unable to change the county commissioners.

Highway commissioners Charles E. Simons pursued the topic of projected growth of Canyon and West Texas State University.

Bryan stated, "I have heard projections of 10,000 to 12,000 at WT by 1980." He also referred to the Springer projection of a similar population for the city of Canyon that same year. Bryan agreed with college officials at WTSU, that the university is a major traffic generator, but he indicated that most traffic comes from Amarillo in the north and the flow of the student traffic into the campus will remain virtually unchanged.

"The traffic coming to WT from Amarillo on I-27 will most certainly continue south on the present expressway," Bryan said, noting that people generally take the shortest way.

"The number of students using the eastern approach is presently limited, and the growth pattern of Amarillo is such that no significant increase can be expected." (Amarillo is presently growing in a south-southwesterly direction.)

Bryan's argument in favor of the western route, which represents a unanimous opinion of the city commissioners, pointed out that Canyon is surrounded on three sides, north, south and east, by riverine conditions. Residential growth to the west is impaired by the existence of two merging railroad lines. He indicated that a eastern location of I-27 would hamper additional resident growth to the east and to the south.

As it now stands, plans for route E will displace 59 families. He recommended that by moving the route a bit further to the west this number could be reduced to six businesses and 20 families.

"The western route would not pose a peril to residential growth and would create the obvious advantage of major highway frontage in conjunction with railroad facilities lending itself to commercial and industrial development. It would also contribute significantly to the effective integration of U.S. 60 from the west.

In his closing statement, Bryan made it clear that the city commission has no arguments with the value of an interstate highway system, but "those of us in positions of responsibilities in local communities are charged with the duties of protecting these communities from action which we feel may impair our city's future."

Chairman Greer again complimented the mayor on his presentation and told the group "these differences of opinion are the type of things that challenge the commission. This is the democratic process. We will listen to the transcription of the public hearing held at West Texas State University and take into consideration the comments made today before we reach a decision."

No indication was given as to when a decision would be rendered by the highway commission.

Assisting in the presentation by the mayor were Felix Pierce, Willis Harrison, George Louder and Eddie Knowles.

Recruiting Begins For Coaching Staff

West Texas State University's football team ended its 2-9 season Saturday in Hattiesburg, Miss., and the mood of the football coaches was reflected here Monday when they left the athletic offices to continue recruiting.

The Southern Mississippi loss, 35-0, was the worst of the long season. Coach Gene Mayfield and his assistants are men who have lost few games in the past and the recruiting plan is to bring in enough talented football players to start a reverse.

The Buffalo coaches have watched over 75 high school teams play this fall and they are presently arranging for some of those talented football players they have seen to visit the campus and eventually sign athletic scholarship agreements.

Besides recruiting on the high school level, the Buffalo coaches are also checking out junior college players in New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas.

Despite the losing season, there was hope for the future on this year's Buffalo squad. Eight sophomores were among the top 22 most of the season and another sophomore, Carl Brown, played enough to be considered a regular. Brown alternated at split end with Daryl Wynn and was the team's long play specialist.

Brown tallied four touchdowns and the shortest of those was a 70-yard pass reception. He also had a 94-yard kickoff return for a score and caught scoring passes of 80 school record 85 yards.

Billy Pritchett, the 6-3, 228-pound sophomore from Brown's hometown of Van Vleet, Tex., was second among Missouri Valley conference rushers and totaled 1,128 yards on the ground.

George and David Land both sophomores, divided duties most of the year at fullback. Ron Leach, a red-shirt sophomore from Andrews, took over the quarterbacking duties when Ed Holwig was injured against the University of Texas at Arlington.

Other sophomores starting were offensive guard Ronnie Bassett, defensive end Thomas Costello, defensive end Walter Hibbler and safety Daryl Carr. Halfback Mark Semkew started several games in the offensive backfield.

Help is already in school with members of the talented freshman team which won three of four games and several red-shirt transfers.

With a few additional players coming from either junior colleges or out of the armed forces, the future of football at West Texas State appears on the upswing.
